

WASHINGTON

By CONGRESSMAN POAGE

Democracy works slowly, but it always reflects the wishes of the majority of the people—if given long enough and if the people don't change their minds before the democratic processes have had time to operate. We are now observing the first governmental recognition of the public reaction against the unnecessary and arbitrary power of the bureaucrats. For many years the public has actually believed that the way to cure all economic and governmental ills was to create a bureau or "administration" to deal with the problem. Even before the war these alphabetical agencies had become so numerous that most people realized that we must strip them of their power. With the declaration of war the administrative agencies did, however, stage a "Come Back"—and how they came back. They came back in the guise of war agencies. The second largest telephone exchange in the world is in Washington and is known as "National War Agencies."

Theoretically these agencies are supposed to promote and speed up the war effort. Actually, they are in many instances hindering the war efforts by destroying our civilian economy. I don't mean that any of these agencies are deliberately trying to aid the enemy, but these agencies are staffed by three types of employees: First, there are the impractical social reformers. They are in charge of many bureaus. They have never had any practical experience and they are generally primarily interested in "social gains." Second, there are the "dollar-a-year" men and other direct representatives of big business. They are generally in key positions. Their objectives are definitely not the same as the social reformers, but they are just as dangerous and generally a lot smarter. They are cold blooded and ruthless. They are willing to see our people go without meat if they can thereby keep the packing business in the hands of the Big Four. They are willing to see our people go without tires if they can thereby keep the tire business in the hands of the four large rubber companies and keep production of raw materials in the hands of the major oil companies. Third, they are the Civil Service employees who are generally honest but utterly without ability. They fill all of the minor positions and most of the junior executive positions, but as a whole, they are "clock watchers" and make no effort to control policy. Their presence, however, has protected most of the agencies from the full force of public and Congressional criticism.

I am convinced that the public long ago became conscious of the fact that much of this dead wood must be cut away. At last Congress is beginning to show signs of recognition of the problem. Today we passed a bill to prevent these agencies from requiring so many reports and questionnaires from the people and from business institutions. We realize that the mere physical work that is involved in preparing these reports adds materially to the man power shortage. I feel very hopeful that after the first of the year that Congress may take positive action to stop the continual procession of registrations that consume so much of the citizens' time. I am even encouraged to believe that we may materially reduce the funds available to these agencies. As long as the President believes in this multitude of agencies (and apparently he is still for them,) they can only be destroyed by taking away their money because the President sets them up by Executive Order. Personally, I feel that our President has been so overwhelmed by direct war work that he has been compelled to accept the advice of others in regard to domestic affairs, and I think he has been getting bad advice.

Another evidence of growing Congressional dissatisfaction with the present policy of bureaucratic control was the action of the House Committee on Agriculture which has unanimously reported a bill which would specifically include farm labor costs in the parity formula. This is what many of us sought at the time of the passage of the second price fixing bill in September. It was defeated at that time through the opposition of the President and Mr. Leon

BOYS CONFESS THEATRE ROBBERY MONDAY NIGHT

Arthur Haynes of Maysfield and Charlie Wilkerson of Branchville, are in jail here awaiting action of the grand jury following the robbery of the Cameron Theatre around midnight Tuesday.

The boys, both past 17 years of age, made a confession to criminal district attorney, Ed. Gunn Tuesday morning.

According to officers here the Theatre was entered around midnight. Harvey Radtke, express company messenger, discovered the robbery when he called for films to be shipped. He notified officers.

Dan Lunsford and Jim McGoldrick, city night policemen, arrested the boys within about 10 minutes after the robbery. John Prude, manager of the theatre, was notified and with Deputy Marshal Lunsford, began a check of the box office cash drawer. Deputy Marshal McGoldrick and Night Watchman Richter, took the boys into custody.

According to Mr. Prude about $15 was stolen from the theatre and $7 were found on the boys. Up to noon Tuesday the remainder of the money had not been recovered.

In their confession, according to Sheriff Valter White the boys said they had attended the show in the late afternoon of Monday and went to the back of the theatre and opened a door which was locked from the inside.

After the show closed Monday night the boys entered the theatre from an alley and committed the robbery.

Haynes has been under arrest before and was paroled about a year ago when he was a juvenile delinquent. It was said here so far as known this is the first offense committed by Wilkerson. Both boys being past 17 years of age will be tried in District Court if the Grand Jury returns an indictment.

Big Game Hunter Is Lost Among Quail; Gets Two Says Pal

Big game hunters are lost among quail thinks Chas. Walzel who reported Wednesday on a jaunt into the coyote country with Coy Arledge Tuesday.

"I got 8 quail," said Walzel, "while Coy got two and that was a big day for him. Why, even his dog couldn't hunt quail."

Recently Arledge told how Walzel was run over by a buck near Fredericksburg. Now Walzel has turned the tables by showing up his friend where they flush 'em in the country lanes. "Big game hunters may have their points," said Dutch, "but when it comes to hunting quail, well, you gotta know your stuff."

When news came that Mrs. McLane had died the people here as well as friends everywhere were sincerely shocked and grieved.

Government Wants Tin Cans; Warehouse Is Obtained Here

S. E. Brogdon, chairman of the scrap drive for the county, has obtained storage facilities for these cans. They can be taken to a warehouse of the Texas Power & Light Company.

These cans contain a number of valuable metals, one of which is tin and the other copper.

Cans are to be flattened out and bailed for shipment. It was planned to obtain this process when a sufficient number have been gathered. Don't throw away your tin cans. They are valuable and vital to the war effort.

ART CONTRIBUTES TO T P & L ADVERTISEMENT

Most exacting detail will be found in an advertisement of the Texas Power & Light Company in today's paper. The illustration used in this advertisement entitled "Land is 700 miles away—but which way?" depicts a rubber boat, such as is carried by U. S. merchant ships, in the middle of the Atlantic and the constellations of stars in the sky are exactly as they appear at this time of year.

Harrison Miller, nationally-famous artist, was commissioned to make the painting. Before beginning the actual work he purchased a book on astronomy which illustrates the constellations at different places and periods. He then visited the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia and talked with Dr. Roy K. Marshall, director of the Cook Observatory of the University of Pennsylvania and assistant director of the Fels Planetarium.

The rubber boat, it was agreed, would be in the middle of the Atlantic. Dr. Marshall and the artist then worked out details of the heavens as they would appear at this time of year, looking north at 50 degrees N. latitude, 700 miles off British Isles. The illustration was then re-checked with available reference works.

Details of the rubber boat, incidentally, were worked out just as carefully. Mr. Miller visited Cramps shipyard at Philadelphia and talked with the man who installs and services the rubber boats with which ships of the U. S. Merchant Marine are equipped.

CHAMBERLAIN DAIRY IS FORCED TO QUIT

Cameron's milk supply was curtailed to the point of exhaustion Thursday when Chamberlain's Dairy the only remaining large milk producer in the community was forced to quit.

Mr. Chamberlain said early Thursday in giving notice that after Thursday, Dec. 3, he will make no more milk deliveries, that despite a desperate effort to remain in business and appreciation for loyal customers, he is forced out.

Lack of labor plus a 12c price ceiling are responsible.

Mr. Chamberlain says he will make no deliveries retail or wholesale. This means stores will not get Chamberlain dairy products.

The entire dairy herd is for sale and will be sold, he said.

In the military areas dairy herds are being built up from the cities where the government has made no investments.

No milk from Cameron is finding its way to army camps. Instead it goes into retail trade in Temple and Belton.

While the engraved section of Cameron's civic front sat back and blew the wind out of its stomach, Temple was getting a 14c ceiling. Now our babies have no milk.

Cameron milk is delivered in Temple at 30c per gallon. In turn it is sold at retail at 56c per gallon. Yet we cannot have a comparative price ceiling.

DECEMBER 15 IS LAST RATION BOOK DATE

With the rationing of coffee it becomes more urgent that War Ration Books of men and women entering the Armed Forces be surrendered to local Boards. This applies also to books of those deceased. Within ten days these books must be turned in.

December 15, 1942, is the deadline for registering persons for War Ration Book One. No consumer may register after that date except persons who have been out of the country, persons in the Armed Forces and no longer eating in organized messes, persons confined in hospitals or other institutions between November 9 and December 15 and babies born after December 15. All of the exceptions named above have a period of 30 days in which to register for a book.

Ben Arnold Walker In Whos Who Among Students of America

Ben Arnold Walker, son of J. E. Walker of this city, who will receive his B. A. degree from North Texas State Teacher's College in June, is among those students who will be listed in the 1942-1943 issue of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. This book will be released in January or February.

This publication is published through the co-operation of over 600 American Universities and Colleges. It is the only means of national recognition for graduates which is devoid of politics, fees or dues. Several students from accredited colleges are selected each year, by an unprejudiced committee, for their biographies to appear in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. These books are placed in the hands of hundreds of companies and others who annually recruit outstanding students for employment.

Mr. Walker is a former student of Lee Junior College at Goose Creek, where he was Vice President of the Student Council, Associate editor of the school paper, and a member of the college year book staff. He is now a senior student, majoring in English, at North Texas State Teacher's College in Denton. Upon his graduation, he will enter the V-7 program of the Navy for a three-month training period at Notre Dame at the end of which time he will be commissioned as an Ensign.

Mr. Walker graduated from Yoe High School in the class of 1938.

Mrs. Ivan Cleek spent Thanksgiving Day with her husband at a Camp in Abilene where he is in training in the Army.

STALINGRAD DEBACLE GRAVE BLOW TO HITLER

The Russian army continues to advance in the 9 day old offensive against the Germans at Stalingrad and it was reported at noon Saturday that the trap had been closed on 250,000 Nazi troops and the entire German army now fighting before the industrial city on the Volga is encircled.

The Red advance has accounted for approximately 60,000 Germans killed and large numbers captured. With the capture came immense stores of war materials.

If the Germans are unable to fight their way out of the trap it will mean the destruction of the entire army before Stalingrad.

The Russians have launched offensives around Moscow and also Leningrad.

For some days the German radio has been silent on news from the Russian front. Except to admit that the Russians had driven wedges into their lines there has been no comment from the Germans.

Observers in the world capitals agreed that the Germans have been whipped at Stalingrad and that the beginning of the end is near for Hitler's once proud and powerful army.

In North Africa no news was available. For more than 10 days radio commentators have been saying that the crucial battle is at hand. So far no such battle has been enjoined.

It was known that the British and Americans are closing in and there seemed to be some hope the operation would be a small one since there are no more than 20,000 Germans in the trap.

Early Friday American and British airmen destroyed 52 German planes. It was said that United Nations now have air superiority in North Africa.

The campaign in North Africa was believed to be progressing well because of feverish German preparations in seizure of Toulon.

Big Film Program Over Week End Here

The theatre program over the week end brings some of the best pictures of the year to Cameron.

"My Sister Eileen," is the main attraction Sunday at the Cameron theatre, starring Rosalind Russell, Janet Blair and Brian Aherne while at the Milam Theatre on Sunday is the great picture "Tarzan's New York Adventure."

Currently showing at the Cameron is the picture "Ghost Town," with Buck Jones and Tim McCoy.

Tonight at the Cameron George Brent and Brenda Marshall play together in "You Can't Escape Forever."

In pre-war years, more than one-third of each freshman class at the University of Texas "stuck it out" until they graduated.

Novel Games Enliven Party On New Year's

"The game's the thing" when a group gathers to celebrate New Year's. A few novel ideas help promote a spirit of informality and bridge any dull period until all the guests get well acquainted.

Since New Year's day is traditionally the time for people to make resolutions, a game centering around this topic will make an instant hit. There is one called "Mixed Resolutions" that will fill the bill for fun-making in any crowd.

Just seat the group in a circle and give each person a paper and pencil. Then tell everybody to put down the name of the hostess and the resolution they think she should make for the ensuing year. Then the name of each guest's right and left hand neighbor, with appropriate resolutions until the entire crowd is covered. No names are signed, so the sky is the limit as far as resolutions go.

Week's Confession.

When all the names have been accounted for, the hostess collects the sheets of paper, reading all the resolutions for herself and each guest.

While your guests are still in a circle, have pencils in their hands, there is another slight variation of an old game that applies admirably to a New Year's party and that will create plenty of hilarity. Just furnish your guests with sheets of paper marked into seven divisions to resemble a week's page from a diary.

Direct each person to sign his name at the top and then pass the slip to the right. Players are then asked to write on the first line an account of what they did on Monday. The slips are then passed along until the entire week is accounted for.

The climax comes when each player rises in turn and reads the name at the top of the page and then the confession which follows below.

'Time' Identified.

And while we are on the subject of slips of paper, there is still another game that will serve to while away some merry moments. The subject of this game may be "Time." That being the case, prepare the slips of paper, writing on each a different variety of time, such as Killing Time, Beating Time, Saving Time, Marking Time, Better Time, Losing Time, March of Time, Nick o' Time, Waltz Time, Night Time, Supper Time, Summer Time and so on. Make two copies of every slip. Give one to each girl and place the rest in a box.

Ask the men to form a single line and draw a slip from the box. After each man reads his slip to himself, he demonstrates in pantomime the kind of time he represents, so each girl can identify her partner for the next activity. The pantomime is continued until all the "times" are identified.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Cobb and daughter, Nancy Ruth, of Maysfield spent Thanksgiving holidays with relatives in Hawkins. While in Cameron Monday Nancy Ruth lost her gold ring but found it in a local store.

V. Harlan of Branchville was in Cameron Saturday on business.

Dr. and Mrs. Prothro Deer of Ganado, George Deer of Houston, Carl Hooker of Marlin were visitors over the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Deer. Carl Hooker is the brother of Mrs. Deer.

Rev. John C. Solomon, minister at the First Presbyterian Church, left Monday for Austin to attend a Minister's Conference at the Seminary. He will return later in the week.

STEPHANIE KUZELL WEDS

Miss Stephanie Cecilia Kuzell, daughter of Commissioner and Mrs. W. E. Kuzell of Buckholts, became the bride of Herman A. Ludwig, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ludwig of Pettibone on Wednesday evening at 4 o'clock. The ring ceremony was read by Rev. A. E. Flathmann at the Hope Lutheran Parsonage at Buckholts.

Attending the couple was the bride's cousin, Miss Maxine Kubich of Cameron who wore a floor length dress of pink satin with a full skirt with big floral design. Her corsage was of red carnations. Shirley Cryer, another attendant wore a powder blue chiffon, shirred at the waist and it was also floor length with a corsage of red carnations. Also attending were Edwin Kuzell, brother of the bride and E. J. Provasek, nephew of the groom.

The bride was beautifully dressed in a man tailored suit of light brown with Nile green accessories, hat with a lace over face. Matching her hat, she wore a blouse of dickerie style. She had a scandals sandbag and a handkerchief that was decorated with sequins. Her corsage was very large and of pink carnations.

The groom and his attendants wore buttonieres of white carnations. The groom wore a harmonizing light brown business suit.

Immediately following the wedding, a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. A big vase of white and yellow chrysanthemums was placed in the center of the table. The two tiered decorated wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom attracted the other end of the table. After dinner the couple left for a short honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Tomlin of Temple visited in Cameron the week end.

Judge John Thweatt from Maysfield was in Cameron Saturday.

LOCAL FARM LOAN BANK RECORD GOOD

The Cameron National Farm Loan Association has had a big part in the 100,000 Federal Land Bank loans closed in Texas. According to P. S. Graves, the Secretary-Treasurer, 365 loans have been made in this territory to farmers and ranchmen.

"The recent closing of loan No. 100,000 in Grayson county through the Sherman National Farm Loan Association makes us proud of the service rendered by the Land Bank system in its 25 year history. This loan was only a few miles from loan No. 1, closed in 1917, and today in good standing, well on the road to being paid off through systematic payments out of earnings of the farm under a long-term, low-interest-rate loan," stated Mr. Graves.

The Cameron National Farm Loan Association has closed 222 Land Bank loans, and 143 Land Bank Commissioner loans for a total of $1,183,400, out of which $303,700 has been repaid. Of this amount, about one-third of the number on one-half of the face amount of loans closed have been repaid.

Officers and directors of the Cameron National Farm Loan Association are Bartie Crenan of Burlington, President; John B. Henderson of Cameron, Vice President; Claud Ellison of Baileyville, J. D. Turney of Hanover and Ed O. Page of Yarrington directors; and P. S. Graves, Secretary-Treasurer.

Mileage Aid for Truckers Available Says Announcement

The County USDA War Board has been advised that Farm truckers receiving their Certificate of War Necessity that do not entitle them to sufficient gasoline and mileage, and feel that an error has been made, can make an appeal to the County Farm Transportation Committee at the AAA Office, as soon as such ODT appeal forms are received. These forms are expected in the county office within the next few days.

If your Farm Transportation Certificate has not been returned from the ODT Office, you can receive temporary rationing certificate from the local Rationing Board for adequate gasoline through December 31, 1942. Blanks are available at the local Rationing Office. Gasoline received under the temporary certificate will be deducted from your final quota when the regular certificate is received.

CHRISTMAS BELLS

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Till, ringing, swinging on its way,
The world revolved from night to day
A voice, a chime,
A chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Then from each black, accursed mouth
The cannon thundered in the South
And with the sound
The carols drowned
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

It was as if an earthquake rent
The hearthstones of a continent,
And made forlorn
The households born
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep,
"God is not dead; nor doth He sleep!
The Wrong shall fail,
The Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men!"

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

CHRISTMAS GREENS

For a great number of people, a house not decorated with Christmas greens would be dull indeed. One expert has pointed out, though, that there need be no fear that there ever will be a shortage of the greens peculiar to the various sections of this nation if proper care is taken in collecting the greenery.

But as it is today, wanton destruction in the collection of the Yuletide decorations, so thoughtfully placed for our use by Mother Nature, has brought about a danger that we might not have some of the greens we are so accustomed to.

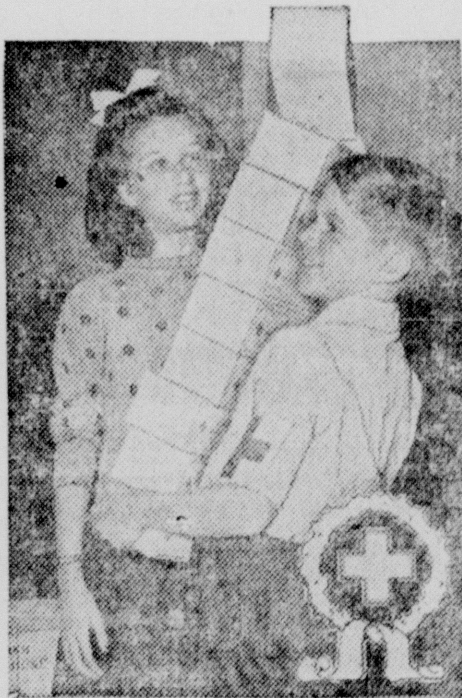

There is a danger that the American holly, in southern Atlantic coast states, and the laurel plants of the mountainous country of the East, will both face extermination unless some organized method of harvesting is brought about.

Three other Christmas decorative plants that are rapidly disappearing because of new, and increased demand, are the winterberry, the ground pine, and the bittersweet.

To a large extent these plants can be saved if the nation turns to the use of evergreen boughs, such as cedar, pine, hemlock and spruce. For a touch of color, artificial red berries could well be used.

The story of our over commercialization is always connected with the background of the dissipation of our native plant life without regard to future stock. Some form of protective law has to be put into effect to protect the quickly disappearing greenery. Restriction or prohibition in certain areas seems to be the coming necessity to save them.

Santa's Helpers

These two youngsters, like thousands of others, are doing their part in helping the Red Cross be Santa both here and abroad.

Medieval Rulers Enjoyed

Huge Christmas Dinners

Calculation of the Christian era is usually credited to Dionysius Exiguus in the Sixth century. However, he was somewhat in error, as it is believed Jesus was born before what was January 1, in A. D. 1. The phrase Anno Domini (year of our Lord), of which A. D. is the abbreviation, was believed to have been first used in 1219.

School for Santa

Last year at Buffalo, N. Y., a night school to train raw recruits into a crop of finished Santa Clauses was opened. The time may come when every jovial, red-garbed street corner bell-ringer's whiskers mask a Bachelor of Santa Claus Psychology.

HITLER SAYS LOSS OF CITY LIKE HALF BERLIN

Despite orders that Rshew be held the Red army was reported at noon to have entered the city which is a vital point in the defense lines of the German army.

In a special broadcast from Moscow the Russians said that letters were captured and one from Hitler in which the Reich leader said loss of Rshew would be equal to loss of half Berlin. Orders were issued to the German commanders that the city be held at all costs.

The city in the hands of the Russians constitutes a dire threat to the entire German line south of Stalingrad. The Red offensive was developing into a pincer movement to isolate the German army in the Caucasus and also at Leningrad. Already the Red army is near the Latvian border. The attacks on a large scale are being made in severe winter storms.

The Allies were expected to take Tunis at any hour. The allies were rapidly clearing the skies of enemy aircraft. The fall of Tunis will clear the Axis out of Tunisia. The main battle for possession of North Africa will occur in Tripoli.

It was broadcast from Germany that the Pope will ask the belligerent powers not to bomb civilian populations. Did Germany and Italy obey any such rules in their heyday of slaughter?

Over in New Guinea the Americans and Australians were fighting the Japs hand to hand and are closing in for the kill said a communication from General Douglas MacArthur.

Heinrich Himmler, Gestapo Chief, has declared a state of siege at Toulon and all along the French Mediterranean border. This would indicate that the Germans are clearing the coast lines for a possible allied thrust.

City Can Help Save Tires; Repair Paved Streets Badly Needed

The Herald has had a number of complaints from car owners not a few of whom have sustained damage to their car tires on rough pavements.

Topped streets often wear out quickly and small holes with sharp crater rims bruise tires. If a tire strikes one of these small craters in the street it is very apt to be broken from the inside especially if improperly inflated.

If the City Street Department could make repairs on these bad streets it would go a long ways to save tires.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Dec. 6.

The Golden Text is: "All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone" (Psalms 86:9, 10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else" (Isaiah 45:18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God fashions all things, after His own likeness. Life is reflected in existence. Truth is truthfulness, God is goodness, which import their own peace and permanence" (page 516.)

Donald M. Nelson Wires Necessity for Continuing Scrap Drive

The Herald has received the following telegram from Donald M. Nelson, Chief of Production Management in Washington, relative to newspaper co-operation in the nation wide scrap drive:

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—The Government is asking the American farmer to dedicate the remaining weeks of 1942 to as intensified scrap hunt. Steel mills need more heavy scrap and the farms are one of the best sources of this type of metal. We need your further help in this farm drive, and aiding our salvage committees to continue this effort throughout the next few weeks. Mats and other material to help you are being prepared and will be mailed soon. All salvage committees are being instructed to continue to make available to the farmer all their transportation facilities and manpower, and to co-operate with you in every possible way. The Nation is looking of the American farmer. I am sure, with your help we will come through. DONALD M. NELSON, Chairman.

Christmas Cheer

Is something that we must have this year. Our stocks of apples, oranges, nuts, candies, mince meat, dates fruit-cake ingredients, cocoa, chocolate coconut, brown and powdered sugar, cinnamon, all-spice, nutmeg, vanilla extract, canned cranberry sauce, English peas, corn, pumpkin, canned dates, Nut Bread, cheese and everything else in the food line which used to be considered commonplace, but are at present very short, are sufficient at present. No doubt we will be out of some items Christmas week. For the particular shopper, we urge you to plan your buying ahead. Make out your list and trade with us. We can supply you from Karo to Kraut.

In the holiday goods our lines are complete, except for red wagons. I believe we have the largest stock of dolls in the country, and mind you, all of our toys from last year are selling at last year prices. Nothing has been marked up.

Our furniture stocks are at the peak for this year. Naturally, we are having trouble getting lots of things. Many things are so short we have to lay down the money when we pick up the goods. That we have been allowed to continue in the game this year we are indeed grateful. To you the public we extend our most humble thanks. The going at times has been rough, but with your continued indulgence we hope to sit in the game a while yet. At 35 miles an hour it will take longer for you to come to town and you might have less time to shop. In order to conserve your time, we will at all times carry the best and most complete stock the market will afford. May we continue to serve you?

ITALY TOTTERING AS BOMBS RAIN ON TURIN

Right in de Fueher's face! Adolph Hitler, Nazi maniac, defeated in Russia and besieged on all fronts, was reported in a Zurich dispatch Monday to have summoned a meeting of his staff and financial leaders to go over the war situation. In Italy the people from around Turin which last night was subjected to a merciless bombing by British planes, were in a state of revolt. General Bagdolio, noted Italian General, dismissed early in 1940, was reported to have been placed under arrest.

El Duce was reported gravely ill from a heart attack.

The war weary Italian people heard Winston Churchill Sunday in a plea to them to throw off the criminal, Mussolini, and sue for a separate peace.

Heinrich Himmler, who escaped Czech bullets, was reported to have arrived in Toulon to take over Getapo activities.

Whether the Italians will surrender may depend on the Germans.

The reported conference called by Hitler came in the wake of more bad news from the Russian front. The Reds have thrust to the border of Latvia in their offensive off Leningrad. At Stalingrad the Red thrust was seen as a master blow by General Timoshenko to isolate the Caucasus armies of the Germans. The completion of the bottling up of the Germans around Stalingrad was reported Saturday.

On every front in the world the Allies were on the offensive. Within a few months time the marching German armies have been stopped and defeat now is staring Hitler in the face. Can he take it? Indications were he may be acting to forestall what is coming soon to the whole Axis power.

The Allies were within 11 miles of Tunis, key city of the Mediterranean. Fresh troops were being brought up for the final assault on the Axis positions there.

Tunis, Beserte, Tripoli are all under heavy bombings by United Nations airmen and the final battle was not far away. All rail communications have been cut and the Axis forces isolated.

In the South Pacific General MacArthur reported gains and the fighting in New Quina nearing a conclusive stage.

Ralph Michalka is Assistant Chief of Fire Department

Ralph Michalka is Assistant Chief of the Cameron Fire Department.

His election occurred recently when W. G. Henderson was named Chief to succeed John Eanes who has reported for enlistment in the United States Army.

Mr. Michalka has been a member of the department for years and is one of the best qualified men for the place. Upon him will fall the responsibility for answering many calls and for the first time in many years the Assistant Chief has such a job.

Chief Henderson, due to his business may not always be able to answer alarms.

Carter Brogdon is Making Progress in Consolidated Plant

He is getting his leadman's rating on the 14th along with a new badge with the word, "LEADMAN" on it. He has been with Consolidate Air Craft 14 months in the purchasing department, working on production control and cost control. There are eight people under him, including two women.

It is their job to regulate the production in the sheet metal department, according to schedule, seeing that parts go into work and completed before their completion schedule date. We have charge of all extension stock in different types and angles. We run parts for the PBY, or "Catalina," also the P B 2 Y-3, or the "Catonado." Both of these are flying boats and patrol bombers.

"The plane that Willie made his long flight in was a Consolidated C87. This is a transport converted from a B-24. Those big ships of course have our O K," said Brogdon.

The Texas Legislature meets in regular biennial sessions on the second Tuesday in January in odd-numbered years.

Modern Toys Foster Spirit Of Fair Play

Christmas gifts designed to promote greater use of the imagination among children in the five to eight-year-old group have been planned by toy makers throughout the nation.

Encouraging the spirit of independence and fostering group creative play, the new type toys teach the youngsters to think for themselves.

During the five to eight-year-old period when children are making the transition from babyhood to reality. School days begin for them. The wise, thoughtful parent selects toys for them which stimulate group play. Dull, to those children, are the toys that obviously teach a lesson. But interesting are the toys that teach a lesson under the guise of fun and not in the classroom. Mathematics can be fun if the youngster applies it to counting change for customers in his make-believe store at home.

After being in the classroom all day, children want to release all the nervous energy within them. Toys such as tricycles, small scooters and junior bikes are helpful for the guidance of all such young exuberance.

Christmas Cards Are Personalized Through Pictures

Photographic Christmas greeting cards have been gaining in popularity during the past few years.

The possibilities are widespread as far as the kind or type you would wish to send. There can be group pictures, individual pictures, humorous ones, big and small types.

Even the greeting itself can be included with the picture of the person or persons through the use of a large printed card. Humor is injected into the cards by having a Santa Claus drawn on a large background, with a hole left in the spot where the face should be. Any young member of the family need but put his head in through the hole for the finished effect.

If you are not a good photographer, or have doubts as to whether you could take such a suitable picture, you should know at least three or four persons who are willing to take the picture for you.

Plenty of Trees

It doesn't take long to grow a suitable size Christmas tree from a seedling. That is one of the reasons why there isn't much possibility that the nation's supply of Christmas trees will reach a point of depletion.

Many farmers, having some acres of soil not suitable for regular farming turn the ground over to producing evergreens for Christmas use. Many have thus undertaken the establishment of Christmas tree plantations where harvesting is conducted on a sustained yield basis.

Most of the balsams, spruce, hemlocks, pines, cedars and firs used for this purpose are the product of northern swamp lands.

Origin of Yule Gifts

The giving of gifts to the poor at Christmas time originated with the belief that the Christ Child sometimes came to the door as a beggar.

Stop Heat Losses

SAVE FUEL FOR WAR PRODUCTION

Don't let "Heat Wasters" rob you of the saving of this winter's lower gas rates.

If you don't intend to use wood in your fireplace this winter, seal the flue now with asbestos or ply board so the room heat will not go out the chimney. If you do use wood, be sure the flue is closed when fireplace is not in use. Otherwise, it is a bad heat waster.

And wasting heat in the Southwest means wasting natural gas—the fuel so essential to war plants. While there's no shortage on Lone Star lines, unexpected cold waves cause peak demands which must be met to keep war production going. Help meet these peak demands by using gas as wisely as possible. Use what you need, but don't waste it.

HOW TO USE GAS WISELY FOR HOUSE HEATING

1. Avoid over-heating. Don't let temperature get above 72 degrees.
2. Keep all heating equipment in good operating condition; keep it clean and free from all dust particles.
3. Flame on radiant-type room heaters should not be allowed to lick out top of radiants.
4. If you have a gas heater in your fireplace, seal the flue to the extent that the room heat will not go up the chimney, yet leave sufficient space for venting heater.
5. For the health of your family, maintain an even heat not over 72 degrees throughout that part of house which is used for winter living.
6. Do not put metal covers on radiators. They absorb heat radiation and stop warm air circulation. Radiators should be painted with a thin coat of flat oil paint, not metallic paints.
7. See that windows and doors lock tightly; if possible they should be weather-stripped.
8. Window openings should be no wider than necessary for an ample flow of fresh air, otherwise they become heat wasters. Where unvented equipment is used, a small opening at the top of the window is recommended to help reduce "wall sweating."
9. At night when windows are open in bedrooms, shut off rest of house to prevent temperatures from dropping so low that more fuel will be needed to build up warmth during the morning hours.
10. Insulation reduces consumption of heating gas 20 to 25 per cent in one-story houses and 15 to 20 per cent in two-story houses of standard type construction. Insulation materials are plentiful and cheaper than ever before.

USE GAS Wisely Use what you need. Don't waste it.

As far as Lone Star engineers and production men can see, Lone Star System will be able to meet the wartime demands of all residential, commercial and war customers this winter. A 4,800-mile interconnected pipeline makes gas available from over 1,000 wells in more than 75 different fields.

HAYS SAYS CHRISTMAS MAIL VOLUME LARGE

The Postoffice Department now is starting the most gigantic task in its history—the movement of a deluge of Christmas mail, cards and letters while maintaining the regular flow of millions of pieces of mail daily to and from our armed forces all over the world.

Indications are that the volume of Christmas mail will be the largest on record. Already in September, latest month for which figures are available, retail sales had reached a level second only to the record month of December 1941, according to the Department of Commerce. And sales are rising. Such heavy purchases always presage heavy mailings.

If thousands of our soldiers, sailors, marines and civilian friends are not to be disappointed at Christmas time, the public must co-operate by mailing earlier than ever before and by addressing letters and parcels properly. The best effort of the Post Office Department alone cannot be enough, in view of war time difficulties faced by the postal system. The public must assist.

About 25,000 experienced postal workers already have been taken by the war services. Arrangements are under way to add thousands of temporary personnel to postal staffs, but this man power is hard to find and is inexperienced. Facilities or railroads and air lines are heavily taxed by movements of huge quantities of war materials and personnel. Extra trucks are almost impossible to obtain. Winter weather, hampering transportation, is beginning.

The free-mailing privilege granted to members of the armed forces has raised their mailings some 30 per cent, it is estimated. Expansion of those forces also is added rapidly to the postal burden.

The deadline is past for mailing gifts to Army and Navy personnel overseas with assurance that the parcels will arrive by Christmas. The New York post office reports that in late October, 350,000 such parcels were handled daily in that office alone.

The Post Office Department is making strenuous efforts to avoid such terrific jam as it faced 1918 under similar conditions, during the First World War. It can succeed in those efforts—and avoid many heartaches for its patrons—if the public will co-operate by mailing early.

Corp Henderson Walker Visits Friends Here

Corp. Henderson Walker of Camp Crowder, Mo., was in Cameron Saturday visiting old friends.

Corp. Walker is now an instructor in the Signal Corps of the United States Army and a good one. Reports received here on his work tell of the value the army is placing on his service and qualifications.

Corp. Walker, former county surveyor, succeeding his father the late Quinn Walker in the place, was born and reared in Cameron. He moved to Waco some years ago and from that city entered the army.

Friends here were happy to have him return for a visit. He was on a short furlough the first since entering the service.

Claude Ellison was here Thursday from Baileyville.

Christmas Play To Be Repeated In Connecticut

This year marks the 31st free performance of the pageant, "Holy Night"—the first having been in 1912. A family affair, three members of the original cast, besides sons and grandsons of others, are taking part in the 1942 performance.

The villagers don't take their acting, and the play itself, in a light, or casual manner. Even though it takes but one hour, the play is rehearsed over and over again, year after year. The first rehearsals begin just after Thanksgiving when costumes are taken from the attic, and players begin to drop around in the evenings.

When the play was first given, it was held at the town hall which had a leaky roof. When it rained, water came down on the lamps, the cast and the audience. Another disadvantage was the lack of audience space. The play had to be given two or three times a night so that the many villagers from neighboring towns could see it.

Even with a larger and newer home the play still "packs them in." As did their parents many years ago, the audience and members of the cast see the same simple scene of the Annunciation, the Child in the manger at Bethlehem, the Adoration of the Magi, and the presence of the Angels—all played in pantomime.

A piano provides the only music for the various scenes, during which are played the songs "Holy Night," "He Shall Feed His Flock" from the Messiah, and Handel's "Largo." The music, too, like the pageant itself, is the same as it was 30 years ago.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Anything can happen during the Christmas rush in the department stores here. A recent trip by a reporter to the store in search of a story was the cause of him being shunted off to the "Lost and Found Department."

There he found a story. Besides being true, it also was interesting in that it gave a slant on the state of shoppers' minds during the rush when presents have to be purchased for those almost forgotten.

Gloves, said the lady in charge, are objects that shoppers seem to leave most on counters and floors of the store. Each day at least a bagful of gloves, singles most of the time, are turned in to the lost and found department. Considering the number of single gloves lost, the woman suggested that gloves should be sold in threes.

Animals are also turned in to the lost and found. Also such pets as canaries, turtles and goldfish. Parents buy pets for their children at Christmas time and then, because of the difficulty in carrying them, in holding them when making change, set them down somewhere and also forget to pick them up when off in search for another bargain.

False teeth are also forgotten by the hapless shoppers. Most of the times the teeth are turned in from the store's tearoom, the telephone booths, or the restrooms.

Yuletide
This is Christmas! The laughter of millions of children of a hundred racial heritages mingles with the bells that summon the devout to worship in freedom at altars of their choice. Christmas tree lights blaze bravely through unshuttered windows. Motor cars move to friendly places. There is food in abundance, and general good will over the land. This is Christmas—in America.

ONLY GERMANS SAY FRENCH FLEET LOST

Uncertainty over the fate of the French Fleet at Toulon Saturday led the British to send powerful units of their Mediterranean strength out to sea.

It was announced in London that the British naval units had set out to find two French submarines and other vessels thought to have escaped from the harbor at Toulon when the Germans suddenly marched into the port.

Some 30 French warships are now in the harbors of Dakar and Alexandria and are said most certain to join the Allied fleets.

Only Germans have said that the French fleet was scuttled in Toulon harbor. Significantly it is pointed out that the British Admiralty was taking no chances and is proceeding with plans to forestall what might ensue of the French fleet by some German trick may now be used against us.

In some Allied quarters it was accepted as true that the French had scuttled their ships in Toulon harbor but there had been no confirmation up to 3 p. m. Saturday.

Labor demands will have risen 410 per cent from October levels by the time war industry is rolling at full speed, J. H. Bond, regional director of the War Man Power Commission, predicted in the October issue of the Texas Personnel Review.

A rushing business is usually headed by a man who does the same.

The 700,000 volume to be added to the University of Texas Library was catalogued. The Library ranks 13th nationally and is first in the South.

Bill Morrison Visits Home; Now in Armed Services of Country

W. A. (Bill) Morrison, former Criminal District Attorney, is in Cameron this week, visiting his mother and friends.

Mr. Morrison resigned as Criminal District Attorney, early this year to enter the army. In a deferred classification due to dependents, he sacrificed much to go and was highly praised throughout the state for his action.

He plans to return to his duties in the army within the next day or two.

Wm. R. Rogers had as holiday guests his son Corp. Kenneth Rogers, and wife of a Crump in Maryland. He was host to a family reunion on Thanksgiving Day with a Turkey dinner at his home. Corp Rogers and wife have returned to their home.

Land is 700 miles away—

BUT WHICH WAY?

WHEN you go overboard from a sinking plane or ship, you've got to know where you are. A bad guess is your last guess.

You've got to understand sun and stars and wind and drift—if you hope to endure long days of thirst and hunger—and steer a course to safety on white sand.

Practical, applied knowledge of the kind that helps men survive the sea can also be a national life-saver on dry land.

Because America's manufacturers know how, our booming war production is the biggest in the world. Because America's electric industry knows how, our war plants have available far more electric power than all the Axis countries combined.

And seven-eighths of all this vast supply of power is provided by the electric companies under business management. They've stepped power production up and up to meet all industrial demands. They've reduced rates so that the average American family gets twice as much electricity for its money as it did 10 to 15 years ago.

These are the accomplishments of experienced men and women who know their business because they learned it the American way—by growing up in it and advancing on ability. These are the results of sound business management under public regulation—the system that has made America strong.

BANKS PLEDGE FUNDS FOR NEW WAR BONDS

Bankers in Milam county pledged resources of their banks to purchase of government bonds in the forthcoming 9 billion dollar treasury issue, at a meeting Saturday night in Cameron.

Oxsheer Smith, President of the Citizens National Bank, was host to the bankers of the county. He has been named chairman for three counties to push sales of war securities.

Representatives were here from the five banks of the county. A dinner was served at Cato's cafe and Mr. Smith was toastmaster. He had just returned from a conference with bankers from the 11th Federal Reserve District in Dallas.

H. M. Hefley, President of the First National Bank, was also in attendance at the Dallas meeting. The conference here Saturday night was to explain the part banks are expected to play in the coming support of the war loan.

Not only will the banks allot 10 per cent of their deposits to the purchase of bonds from the December issue, but will urge others to buy.

War financing, lagging in Milam county, was expected to show more vigor now that financial leaders such as Mr. Smith are in the vanguard of the drive.

Car Stolen Here Is Found at Levelland In Hockley County

Sheriff Valter White reported to the Daily Herald shortly after noon Wednesday that a Ford Coupe stolen here some weeks ago from the garage of the Hefley-Stedman Motor Company, has been found in a garage in Levelland in Hockley county.

The car is owned by Oxsheer Smith, President of the Citizens National Bank.

Sheriff Ed. Hofacket of Levelland telephoned Sheriff White this afternoon and said he was almost certain to have the man located who had been operating the car. A white man and a negro are said to have stored the car two days ago.

The Sheriff there said the men had robbed a number of stores and he had been trying to arrest them. The sheriff expressed belief the man who burglarized the garage here and took the car may be a local resident. He gave a description.

Sheriff Valter White was asked to go to Levelland. The Sheriff there was a victim of the gasoline ration panel and has only 4 gallons of gas.

The car, equipped with good tires, was said to have been stripped of them and an older set mounted.

MUSSOLINI DEFIES CHURCHILL THREAT

STICKS OUT CHIN AND SAYS NAZI! PROTECT HIM

Benito Mussolini defied Winston Churchill Wednesday to do his worst and said Italy cannot be bombed out of the war.

It was the longest speech El Duce has made since war began. He made some startling admissions, one in particular that Italy had stabbed France in the back because in centuries past France had done some stabbing also.

Mussolini said that the defense of Italy will be taken over by Germany and that civilians are being moved from the coastal areas. He said that some 2000 people had been killed at Genoa and that destruction there had been widespread since the British raids began.

In his address Sunday Mr. Churchill called upon the Italian people to throw off the Fascist yoke and depose Mussolini, and said that Italy will be bombed as was England in 1940. Mussolini's speech was a reply to Churchill and also a defy. Now it's up to Mr. Churchill to begin his bombings.

Mussolini reported gravely ill in the war by radio, was wheezing some as he spoke and coughed often. He laughed also and joked about the British threat. He reviewed Italian losses in the war and declared that if Italy surrenders her dream of empire will be gone forever.

Despite the great emphasis on air power this war has shown that no nation has yet been conquered by bombing planes. Certainly England is a good example of that. Mr. Churchill as well as Secretary of State Cordell Hull must have felt that Mussolini's regime is tottering. As El Duce stuck out his chin and screamed American soldiers had reached the Mediterranean coast and captured the highway between Tunis and Bizerte.

In the east the Red army was thundering ahead, rolling the Germans back.

THE MOST IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

EVER MADE BY THE U. S. TREASURY DEPARTMENT

The 9 Billion Dollar Victory Loan Drive Is On!

This week the United States Government begins its drive for borrowing nine billion dollars from accumulated savings and idle funds in the next several weeks as an essential part of winning the war more quickly and more completely.

During these critical weeks you probably will be visited by a representative of one of the securities firms or banks which are contributing their time and effort—without compensation of any kind—to the Victory Fund Committee. He will explain to you, for instance, the benefits that you can obtain from the new Victory 2½'s—available for the first time. Welcome him as a war worker when he calls. If you miss him, ask your banker or securities dealer for full particulars. There is no limit to the amount that you can purchase.

Today many American families are torn apart. Millions have left their homes or their jobs; thousands have given their lives and many more are prepared to do so.

But the government, your government, is not asking you to give anything to this Nine Billion Dollar Drive. It is asking you to lend it all of the money you can possibly invest in what is the safest investment in the world—at a good rate of interest.

When the Victory Fund representative calls, please remember this: it is in your own interest, as well as that of your country, to listen to him—and to invest.

Other Treasury Securities offered to investors through the Victory Fund Committee are Treasury Tax Savings Notes A and C, and U. S. Savings Bonds, Series F and G.
